THE DEMOCRATS WILL WIN FIGHT

feat George H. White, Republican, for the House, in Essex county, James M. Lewis, Democrat, has no opposition. G. E. T. Lane, Democrat, will defeat J. H. Marchant, Republican, for the House from Mathews and Middlesex counties. James L. Tallaferra, Democrat, will be elected over Lewis, Republican, in Gloucester county for the House. J. Boyd Sears, Democrat, has no opposition for the State Senate from that district.

THE SECOND DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., November 4.—There is only one independent candidate for the Virginia General Assembly in the Second Congressional District. In Princess Anne county Peter Jarvis, who is a prohibitionist, has announced that he would run for the House of Delegates against the Democratic nominee, Dr. George Snead, the present delegate from that county.

In Norfolk city the candidates are W. W. Old and E. W. Gaines for the House.

What Sulphur Does

For the Human Body in Health and Disease.

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days, when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall "blood purifier," tonic and cure-all, and most of us, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years, research and experiment have proven that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium Sulphide and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Wafer.

They are small chocolate coated pills, and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

Few people are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health; sulphur acts directly on the liver and excretory organs, and purifies and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they gave us sulphur remedies, soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any other form. He says: "For liver, kidney and blood troubles, and especially in all forms of skin disease, as this remedy."

At any rate, people who are tired of pills, cathartics and so-called blood "purifiers" will find in Stuart's Calcium Wafer a far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins, while experimenting with sulphur remedies, soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any other form. He says: "For liver, kidney and blood troubles, and especially in all forms of skin disease, as this remedy."

and Senator W. W. Sale for the Senate. Portsmouth, Charles T. Bland, for the House, and John C. Niemeyer for the Senate, representing the city and Norfolk county.

Norfolk county has two candidates for the House, W. G. Parker, Jr., and E. W. Owens.

Other candidates for the House are W. E. Howie, Isle of Wight; Harry R. Houston, Elizabeth City and Accomac; Roger T. Gregory, New Kent; Charles C. City, James City, York and Warwick; Robert W. Withers, Nansemond county; Joseph Prince, Southampton; W. E. Barrett, delegate from Newport News.

William Shands, is the nominee from the counties of Nansemond, Isle of Wight and Southampton, for the Senate.

With the one exception of Princess Anne county there is no opposition to the candidates of the Democratic party for the General Assembly of Virginia from this district and therefore they will all be elected. The Republicans have not put up any candidate because there was no hope that they could win an election anywhere in the heavy voting Democratic counties and cities of the district except in Norfolk county, but in the interest of Alvan H. Martin, clerk of the Norfolk county court at Portsmouth, the committee decided not to attempt any opposition but to concentrate the whole strength of the party for the election of Mr. Martin. The Democratic nominee against him is W. Dudley, but as there was a strong factional opposition to him, it is likely that his name will be out at the polls and that if elected it will be by a close margin.

THE THIRD DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

IT ALL the districts in the State would do as well for the Democrats as the third. Mr. Swanson's majority would go to 40,000 with ease and there would be very few Republicans in the Legislature.

To start out with, Richmond city will elect one Senator and five House members, without opposition. General Charles J. Anderson is the nominee for Senator and Messrs. E. P. Cox, H. C. Glenn, Ordway Puller, Eugene C. Massie and R. B. Peyton, Jr., for the House.

Winchester, Chesterfield and Powhatan will send two Democrats to the House in the persons of Captain W. W. Baker and Mr. Willis Pulliam and Henrico will elect Mr. C. W. Throckmorton with ease. Captain Cardwell will be returned from Hanover and Mr. Roger T. Gregory from New Kent. Judge T. A. Ashby, Victorian of Henrico, will have a walkover for the Senate, and the county will give the State ticket a handsome majority.

There are but two House nominees in the district in any doubt, and strictly speaking, one of these is not in the third, though one of the counties in which he is running is a part of this congressional district. The nominees referred to are Hon. Pembroke Pettit, the nominee in Fluvanna and Goodland, and Judge O. O. Gwathmey, the floater candidate from King William and Hanover. Both may pull through, but they are confronted with strong opposition and unfavorable local conditions. Even though one or both of these shall be defeated, all the rest of the Third District delegation will be Democratic. The district will give Mr. Swanson and his running mates on the State ticket from 5,000 to 7,000 majority.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., November 4.—There are no Republican candidates in this city for the State Senate, House of Delegates or any municipal office, and a like absence of opposition in the majority of counties in this Fourth Congressional District. Indicates a Democratic sweep for both Senate and House, menaced only by the danger of such an assumption causing a lack of interest among Democrats and consequent small vote.

Well informed Democratic opinion here regards this probability of a small vote as a serious danger in the election.

tion, especially in the county precincts, where many Democratic voters, assuming Democratic success as a certainty, are likely to neglect voting. A small vote is expected in this city with a comparatively large majority for Mr. Swanson. Judge Lewis having apparently little local support. The total city vote at the August primary was 1,344 for Martin and Montgomery, and 1,251 for the gubernatorial candidates.

In this Congressional district three State Senators are to be elected next Tuesday from the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-seventh, and Twenty-ninth Districts. Judge William Hodges Hann, in the Twenty-eighth, being a hold-over.

In the Twenty-ninth, comprising this city and Dinwiddie county, Charles T. Laxsler, of Petersburg, has no opposition. In Prince George, Sussex, Surry and Greensville counties, of the Twenty-seventh District, Senator A. R. Hobbs, of Marl, also has a clear field for reelection. F. B. Roberts, of Chase City, Democratic candidate from the Twenty-fifth Senatorial District, Brunswick and Mecklenburg counties, is opposed by A. H. Haythorne, Republican.

For the House of Delegates, R. E. Gill, Democratic candidate for Petersburg, has no opposition.

In Dinwiddie county the election of T. E. Clark, of Sutherland, over Mr. Peebles, the independent candidate, is a certainty. In Sussex and Greensville counties Captain D. F. Jarrett, Republican, is running against J. E. Person, of Jarrett, the dispute over whose nomination in the Democratic primary has been amicably settled.

E. B. Barham, Jr., of Runnyswede, Democratic nominee from Prince George and Surry, has some Republican opposition, as has Dr. R. S. Powell, of Woodview, in Brunswick county. The election of the other Democratic nominees, of the House from this district, S. P. Road, in Mecklenburg county; E. P. Wallace, Lunenburg; John J. Owen, Prince Edward; Willis C. Pulliam, Powhatan, and J. A. Snyder, Amelia and Notoway, is supposed to be certain.

THE FIFTH DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 4.—It is predicted that the Fifth Congressional District will give the Democratic ticket a large majority in the election next Tuesday. This being Congressman Swanson's home district, he will lead the ticket. Hon. W. A. Garrett, of Henry, the present Senator from the Twenty-third Senatorial District, comprised of the city of Danville and the counties of Henry and Pittsylvania, will be re-elected by a safe majority. He is opposed by Mr. Vincent Reynolds, the Republican nominee, who is personally popular, and the strongest man in the Republicans could have named. Yet it is known that he has little expectation of winning. For the House of Delegates, Mr. J. M. Barker, of Henry, is opposed by Mr. C. T. Turner, the Republican nominee. The result of the election of Mr. Barker seemed very much in doubt at one time, but the tide has turned in favor of his carrying the election by a safe but not a large majority. For the House of Delegates from Danville and Pittsylvania county the following Democratic candidates will be elected by a large majority: S. H. Wilson, former member of the House John E. Taylor, and S. Fletcher Clement, all from Pittsylvania.

The Republicans have been quite active in this district during the campaign, but for the past several days or more the Democrats started a strenuous fight, and a sweeping victory is anticipated. A feeling of apathy on part of many Democrats will to a certain extent make a majority smaller, but it is otherwise would be if a full vote is polled.

THE SIXTH DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 4.—The coming election is attracting very little attention in this portion of the State, though the various county and city committees are losing no opportunity to impress upon the minds of the voters the importance of going to the polls on next Tuesday.

Captain Tipton P. Jennings and Mr. Eugene Ould, who are the present representatives of Lynchburg and Campbell county, respectively, have no opposition.

In Amherst county, the Democratic nominee for reelection to the House of Delegates, Dr. Don Scott, is being opposed by Mr. S. R. Harding, a Republican, but this opposition will be very weak.

In the senatorial district, composed of Nelson and Amherst counties, where A. B. E. Strode, the young attorney who conducted the case against ex-Judge Campbell, before the Legislature several years ago, which resulted in his being removed from the bench of the Amherst County Court, was nominated by a very small majority in August, a primary over Senator Bland Massie, of Nelson, the incumbent, is opposed by W. L. Moorman and W. L. Richeson, both Independents. Mr. Moorman is the gentleman who endeavored to form a "Roosevelt Democratic party" in Amherst several weeks ago, but the effort failed. Mr. Strode will be elected on Tuesday by a large majority.

The Democratic candidates in Lynchburg for half a dozen city offices have no opposition.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., November 4.—To accurately diagnose the political situation in the Seventh District from this point is perhaps an impossibility; but to use the immediate vicinity as a criterion the Democratic party will have an easy victory at the polls next Tuesday. Frederick county and Winchester, the county seat, are Democratic strongholds and always return a big Democratic majority. This time, however, there is no opposition to the local Democratic ticket and this means the vote will not be more than the average. Judge Lewis is credited with being a popular man in the Valley and the Republicans depend much on this popularity—a prominent local Republican stating that he has the best chance in years of being elected. While the Democrats concede that he will get out a big Republican vote, they are confident Mr. Swanson will carry the district and the State. Your correspondent understands that Governor Montague's majority in this district was about four hundred. The Republican committee has been very active in this end of the district and has collected a large amount of literature, some Democratic papers are charged with selling the party space in their columns, and a West Virginia paper sends weekly thousands of copies to the Valley, teeming with Republicanism.

THE EIGHTH DISTRICT

ALEXANDRIA, VA., November 4.—Advice received here from several of the counties of this congressional district indicate that the usual Democratic majorities will be considerably reduced in the election next Tuesday. In several quarters the Democratic leaders are not a little apprehensive of the strength of the Republicans may be able to show on election day. Throughout this district the Republicans have conducted a vigorous campaign holding mass-meetings in the towns and sending speakers to the villages and cross-roads. They have vigorously assailed the Democratic State administration at every supposed vulnerable point, and it is predicted that their campaign, conducted not only through speech-making and personal appeal, but through the liberal distribution of political literature, will yield large returns in the way of acquisitions to the party vote. The Democrats are prepared for considerable reductions in their majorities and the Republicans are promising startling things in this direction. But it is situated on impartial authority that the Republicans will assuredly go Democratic by a safe majority.

The effort of the Republicans to send to the Legislature some representatives from the counties of this district seems to have little promise of success.

Here in Alexandria city and county, where typical conditions prevail, the Republicans have made a hard fight for their nominees. Mr. John B. Henderson, Jr., son of former Senator Henderson, of Missouri. The indications are that he will be defeated by a rather small majority by Colonel James R. Caton, the Democratic nominee. Mr. Henderson will probably lead in the county, but will be away behind in the city.

THE NINTH DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, VA., November 4.—The Democrats of Southwest Virginia were, according to the best posted men, in better shape than they have been in any campaign since the new State Code by the Times-Dispatch correspondent regarding the situation, former Congressman W. P. Rhea stated that according to information received by him from trustworthy sources, the party in the southwestern portion of the State is working in thorough harmony and has a good prospect of winning some good victories. Here in Washington county, he said, the Democrats have been on the alert, practically all poll-taxes have been paid, according to the requirements of law, so that there is an excellent chance of winning a substantial victory in Washington county. Advice received from Abingdon, the county seat, are to the effect that there are about eight hundred persons of legal age to vote who have not paid their poll-taxes, and nearly all of these, it is claimed, are Republicans. This would indicate a reasonably good majority for the Democratic ticket in the county, notwithstanding that two years ago the Republicans carried the county.

The Democratic candidates to represent Bristol and the county of Washington in the House of Delegates are J. D. Williams, of Glade Spring, and John C. Stanfield, of Holston. Their Republican opponents are Dr. W. M. Phillips, incumbent, of Wallace; and J. J. Geisler, of near Glade Spring.

Thomas B. Porterfield, whose home is near Broadford, Va., is the Democratic candidate for Senator from the district composed of Bristol, Washington and Smyth counties. He is a popular man and is making a good impression in the district. His opponent is Hon. A. T. Lincoln, of Marion, Va. Mr. Lincoln represented Smyth county in the late Constitutional Convention. He is a good, strong man, but notwithstanding his personal popularity, the Democrats think there is an excellent chance for the election of Mr. Porterfield. It is estimated that the majority the Democrats will receive in Bristol, Va., coupled with what they expect in Washington county, will be considerably more than enough to offset the majority Mr. Lincoln will no doubt receive in Smyth county.

In the next senatorial district east of here, Hon. Peyton St. Clair is the Democratic nominee. He is opposed by James D. Honaker, of Bland county, who was nominated by the Republicans. While that district is ordinarily close, the Democrats entertain good hopes of the success of Mr. St. Clair, who is a very popular and influential gentleman. He is making a good fight. The district in which Mr. St. Clair and his opponent are running is composed of the counties of Bland, Giles, Wythe and Pulaski. Bland and Wythe, it is expected, will give majority in favor of Mr. Honaker, but it is claimed that Mr. St. Clair will more than offset this by the majorities he will receive in Giles, Bland and Pulaski.

There is no election for Senator this year in the district composed of the counties of Scott, Lee and Wise. In Scott county the Democrats are making a united and strong pull for Mr. M. Starnes, the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, and it is confidently expected that he will win, as the Democrats have been very watchful and have urged all members of the party to comply with the law in the payment of poll-taxes.

Former Congressman Rhea says that on the point of paying their poll-taxes the Democrats are better off throughout Southwest Virginia than they have ever been, so that it is not anticipated that the Democrats Slomp's boast will hold good in the Southwest.

Speaking of the popularity of Hon. Claude A. Swanson, and of the growing disfavor for the candidacy of Judge Lewis, Judge Rhea says that in his opinion Mr. Swanson will win a most notable victory, and he declares that he will not be in the least surprised if the majority for Swanson reaches 40,000.

THE TENTH DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., November 4.—Much interest is being manifested in the county of Augusta and city of Staunton over the approaching election. Both sides have made a vigorous campaign and the vote will be a large one. The principal fight, however, will be for Governor, and Swanson, Democratic nominee, will likely carry the city over Judge L. L. Lewis by three hundred, and the county of Augusta by about three hundred and fifty. Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Edward Echols, Democratic nominee for the Senate will likely run away ahead of A. D. S. Beck, Republican. There is no opposition to the nominee for municipal office, for House Delegates, Hon. John W. Churchman and S. H. Walker, Democrats, will be opposed by W. H. Shields, and John A. Kiracofe. This it is thought will be close. Leading politicians variously estimate the Democratic majority in the city of Staunton and county of Augusta, combined, at from 450 to 750.

The primary nominees for municipal offices are Newton Argenbright, Clerk Corporation Court; A. A. Eskridge, Commissioner Revenue; E. D. Bell sergeant, Carter Braxton, Commonwealth's attorney; C. A. Crafton, constable; Arista Hoge, treasurer.
